TENNESSEN WARNING NOTICE:

The data we are asking you to provide about yourself is considered private data by Minnesota Statute 13.47 subdivision 2. In order to collect and use this data we must tell you why we need the data, how we intend to use it, and any consequences you may experience if you supply the information or not.

Why we need the data

- Your Social Security Number is requested to identify you as a unique individual and to find wage data on you that helps us determine how well our services helped you.
- Personal characteristics; age, gender, ethnicity, race, disability and economic status is collected to evaluate our performance and in some cases, to determine if you're eligible for special assistance
- Veteran status is asked to determine if you are eligible for special services and to evaluate our service delivery.
- Work and education history is used to help you plan your employment and training goals.

How we intend to use the data

Work and education history may be shared with prospective employers. In addition to analyzing this data to improve our services, we may share information about you with other employment and training service providers in order to determine what services you may be eligible for and to coordinate services provided to you. Data may be shared with federal and state entities that provide funding for WorkForce Center services. Additionally other government entities with a legal right to this data may see your information

Consequences to you

You can refuse to supply any or all of this information; you are not legally required to provide any of this information to use WorkForce Center services. Not supplying sufficient information may limit our ability to provide you the services you want.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Equal Opportunity Is The Law

It is against the law for this recipient of Federal financial assistance to discriminate on the following bases:

Against any individual in the United States, on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, political affiliation or belief; and

Against any beneficiary of programs financially assisted under Title I of the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (WIA), on the basis of the beneficiary's citizenship/status as a lawfully admitted immigrant authorized to work in the United States, or his or her participation in any WIA Title I-financially assisted program or activity.

The recipient must not discriminate in any of the following areas:

Deciding who will be admitted, or have access, to any WIA Title I-financially assisted program or activity;

Providing opportunities in, or treating any person with regard to, such a program or activity; or

Making employment decisions in the administration of, or in connection with, such a program or activity.

What to Do If You Believe You Have Experienced Discrimination

If you think that you have been subjected to discrimination under a WIA Title I-financially assisted program or activity, you may file a complaint within 180 days from the date of the alleged violation with either:

Susan Tulashie, State EO Officer

The Director
Civil Rights Center, (CRC)
U.S. Department of Labor
200 Constitution Avenue NW
Room N-4123
Washington, DC 20210

If you file your complaint with the recipient, you must wait either until the recipient issues a written Notice of Final Action, or until 90 days have passed (whichever is sooner), before filing with the Civil Rights Center (see address above).

If the recipient does not give you a written Notice of Final Action within 90 days of the day on which you filed your complaint, you do not have to wait for the recipient to issue that Notice before filing a complaint with CRC. However, you must file your CRC complaint within 30 days of the 90-day deadline (in other words, within 120 days after the day on which you filed your complaint with the recipient).

If the recipient does give you a written Notice of Final Action on your complaint, but you are dissatisfied with the decision or resolution, you may file a complaint with CRC. You must file your CRC complaint within 30 days of the date on which you received the Notice of Final Action.

The above "NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC" applies to the federal programs covered under the Workforce Investment Act. Complaints concerning services provided by non-WIA programs may be processed differently.

The recipient* must provide the notice to all appropriate parties including: registrants and applicants for services; participants; applicants for employment; employees; unions or professional organizations that hold collective bargaining or professional agreements with the recipient; sub-recipients that receive Workforce Investment Act (WIA) Title I funds from the recipient; members of the public, including those with impaired vision or hearing.

Term to Know—Recipient: Any entity to which financial assistance under WIA Title I is extended, either directly from the U.S. Department of Labor or through the Governor or another recipient; excluding the ultimate beneficiaries of the WIA Title I funded programs or activities.
